

Speaker Introduction

 Our speaker today was recognized as one of the Top Ten Funniest Toastmasters in North Carolina and was acknowledged as a Distinguished Toastmaster in 2020 by Toastmasters International.

Recognized as a great storyteller and a very funny guy, he parlayed an advertising career, which started in 1981 with Grey Advertising in New York City, with his passion for speaking. His clients are a who's who in Fortune 500 companies, including General Foods, Procter & Gamble, Timex, Revlon, Warner Bros. Pictures and Canon Cameras.

Our speaker grew up on the rough and tumble streets of Brooklyn, New York, which allowed him to hone his speaking and negotiating skills at an early age – or, as he puts it: “I learned to run very fast.” A former Eagle Scout, he graduated with a BA from the University of Dayton. When he isn't speaking or consulting, he loves to spend as much spare time as possible with his wife Jeanann and their daughter Morgan and son Tyler.

He will be available immediately following his presentation to sign copies of his book. We're excited and honored he is with us.

Ladies and gentlemen, please welcome... Peter Agiovlassitis.

[pronounced Ajee-ō-vläss-EYE-tiss]